

Purekor Platinum Southern Import Pine Plywood

Description

Purekor Platinum Southern Import Pine Plywood, is an industrial grade Radiata pine plywood that contains no added Urea Formaldehyde and uses 100% FSC Certified fiber.

LEED Credits

MR 7.0
EQ 4.4

Uses

Purekor Platinum Southern Import Pine Plywood is manufactured for use in roof, flooring or wall sheathing applications.

Product Features

Multiple LEED Credits:

Contributes to multiple LEED Credits simultaneously
FSC Certified:

Contains 100% FSC Certified Fiber

Available in the following grades:

CD, CC, CC P+TS, T&G Underlayment, AC and BC Sanded, Struc-1, BBOES Concrete Formply

Complete selection of thicknesses:

Available in 3/8", 15/32", 19/32", 23/32", 31/32", 1 1/8"

Available as Class A Fire Retardant:

See Pyroblock Platinum Veneer Core

Priced extremely competitively:

This product in most cases is price competitive with uncertified southern yellow pine in most markets.

Service

McKillican can provide you with all your green forest product needs. Our product experts are available to answer any questions you may have regarding this product or any other, as well as LEED® requirements.

Specifications

Purekor Platinum Southern Import Pine Plywood is made with no added urea formaldehyde. This product contains 100% FSC Certified Content and is certified under Panel Source Chain of Custody number SCS-COC-001034. Purekor Platinum Southern Import Pine Plywood is produced under Performance Standard PS-1 and is certified by TECO. The panel is available as CC, CD, CC P+TS, AC and Struc-1.

Sizes/Thicknesses

Thicknesses	3/8", 15/32", 19/32", 23/32", 31/32", 1 1/8"
Finished Mat Size	48"X96"
Thickness Tolerance	+/- .005"
Length/Width Tolerance	+/- 1/32" per lineal foot

Panel Source – A Division of McKillican International, Inc.

www.mckillican.com www.panelsource.net

Green Building Information Center: 1-877-464-7246