

Description

Purekor FSC Swedish Century Siding is a tight knot lap siding manufactured using select FSC Certified Swedish Spruce. This is an abundant, slow growing species from Northern Sweden.

---

LEED Credits

MR 7.0

---

Uses

Purekor FSC Swedish Century Siding is an exterior siding for the environmentally conscious homeowner or developer.

---

Features/Customer Benefits

FSC Certified:

Contains 100% FSC Certified Fiber

Moisture Resistant:

The natural properties of this product ensure moisture resistance

Resists warping:

Provides superior dimensional stability

Multiple thicknesses:

Available in 5/8" and 3/4"

Primed siding available:

W4S White four sides

---

Service

Panel Source can provide you with all your green forest product needs. Our product experts are available to answer any questions you may have regarding this product or any other, as well as LEED® requirements. PureKor™ and Pyroblock™ are registered trademarks of Panel Source.

Specifications

The superior water repellent qualities and moisture resistant properties of this product have made this material the choice of Swedes for literally hundreds of years.

This product is quality certified by the Swedish Institute for Wood Technology and certified to be in compliance with the strict environmental standards of the FSC and the PEFC (Pan European Forest Certification). This product contains 100% FSC Certified content and is certified under Panel Source Chain of Custody number SCS-COC-001034

Purekor FSC Swedish Century Siding has been installed on several hundred homes in the Pacific Northwest. The performance under the environmental conditions has been excellent. Now environmentally conscious homeowners have access to an extremely high quality, FSC Certified, real wood siding at very affordable prices.

Purekor FSC Swedish Century Siding is available in 5/8 and 3/4 thicknesses and in 6" and 8" widths. This product is available in both natural and pre primed all 4 sides.

Panel Source – A Division of McKillican International, Inc.

www.mckillican.com    www.panelsource.net

Green Building Information Center: 1-877-464-7246